

September 2017

Policy Statement on Diversity

CPMC acknowledges that discrimination, bullying and harassment can have a severe and damaging impact on mental and physical health outcomes for affected individuals, their families and communities. CPMC strongly endorses diversity and inclusion of ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion and disability in all aspects of life, particularly in education, employment, medical care, sport, and relationships.